Friends and former customers of Garnet “Bill” Beetham are remembering the longtime bar owner as news spread of his death July 24.

Beetham, 68, owned the Male Box bar, a nightspot that had several iterations, first on East

Seven Mile Rd. in Detroit and later on Hoover in Warren. Many friends took to social media to honor Beetham:

“Bill was a huge supporter...of MDSL and our MIST tournaments.”

“You employed me and watched over me for many years...You will be missed.”

— Nick B.

“You took a chance on me and ... allowed me a place to call home.”

— Sabin

Menjo’s will host a celebration of Bill and also that of longtime customer Chad from 4-9 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 3.
