

Russell Bowman

Russell Bowman of Grosse Pointe died on Sunday, May 23 of complication associated with AIDS. He was 41.

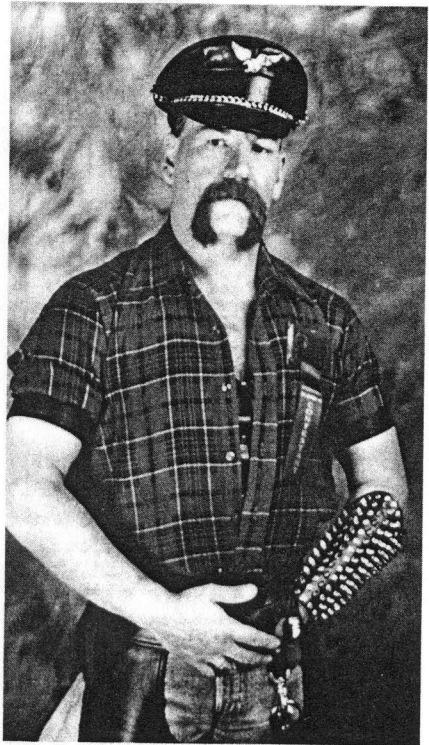

Bowman was born and raised in the Grosse Pointe area attending school in the Grosse Pointe school system and graduating from Grosse Pointe High School. After high school he trained as an Interior Decorator and was working in that field at the time of his death.

Bowman was also active in the Leather community in the Detroit area. In 1988 he was chosen as Mr. Michigan Leather 1988-1989 and represented the state at the International Mr. Leather contest in Chicago.

Bowman is survived by his mother, one brother, two nieces, two nephews, and many friends and acquaintances.

Funeral services were conducted on Tuesday, May 25 at the Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church in Detroit. His remains were cremated.

Memorial donations may be made to the Community Foundation of Southeast Michigan.

Russell Bowman

Cruise 6-9-93