

Ron Owens

Ronald L. Owens, of Detroit died on December 30, 1999 after a long illness caused by a brain tumor.

A native of New Mexico, Owens served in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam war. He had worked as a hair stylist until illness made that no longer possible, and was a member of the Metropolitan Community Church of Detroit.

Ron loved to tromp through estate sales, write poetry, and enjoy his eclectic collection of recorded music.

He is survived by two sisters, three brothers, his beloved cat and dog, and his church family at Metropolitan Community Church.

A Memorial Service in Celebration of the Life of Ronald Owens will be held on at 7:00 pm on Saturday, February 5. The Metropolitan Community Church of Detroit Service will be conducted at the Drayton Avenue Presbyterian Church in Ferndale. Call (248) 399-7741 for details.

Memorials are suggested to the MCC-D

N S

Building Fund or a charity of the donor's choice.

Owens remains were cremated.