

OBITUARIES

Eric Jordan

BTL July 1995 p.17

Eric Jordan passed away on June 18, 1995. He died in his sleep early Sunday morning in his parents' home in Nashville.

Eric was a case worker at the AIDS Consortium of Southeastern Michigan from August 1993 to January 1995, when health problems led to his retirement and relocation to his native Tennessee. Eric was a valued participant in numerous community groups, such as Men of Color, Full Truth, Men of Imani, the National Gay/Lesbian Leadership Forum, and James Ball & Pat Parker. Eric would have celebrated his thirtieth birthday on June 20. All of his friends and peers will miss him greatly.

Eric's family has requested memorial contributions be sent to: First Response Center, Metropolitan Interdenominational Church, 2128 11th Avenue North, Nashville, TN 37208; or Alive Hospice, Inc.; 1718 Patterson, Nashville, TN 37208.
